U. S. Ciatuir Corat.-The arguments in the case James Stevens vs. Gladding & Proud were concluded, and the case given to the Jury.

Efficit, Woodbury, et. al vs. Lewis E. Simonds. This was a bill filed by the Complainants who were the owners of a vessel which was spixed on the coast of Afries, by the Respondent, who is an officer in the U. S. Navy, on suspicion of being engaged in the Slave trade, and taken into Buston. On the trial of the proceedings there, there was not sufficient proof to watsunt a conviction and forfeiture of the vessel ; and this Bill was filed by the owners for the recovery of damages against this afficer.

Judge Woodbury gave a long written opiolon, dismissing the Bill, without costs, as there was probable cause for the seiture. C. Ir. Bradley for Complainant. W. S. Burgess for Respondent.

Mr. Entres.

I have a strong regard for Music, particularly is this true of Speed Music .-To such a degree is this developed, that religious services to me are productive of a small amount of good, when my nerves are horrified by strange and disagreeable noises --- by inistake called music.

Clergymen are always anxious to secure the best talent, that circumstances will perupit, for their d'fferefit congregations. There are one or two other considerations, besides talent, that require notice in order that good Missic may be obtained; even it the talent in of the highest order. With the utmost respect for the Reverend orders, I purpose noticing some of thuse consideration, becaking therefore a favorable notice on the part of these to whom they may apply.

In order that the ideas may be clothein appropriate language, I quote the follow ing from an author of acknowledged talent and picty. It will be perceived that the auther has chosen the form of questions and prawcia.

"Question, What music should he arplied to words that are Destrinal, Diductio, or Historical? Answer, Until those who read them, learn that it is not reason, but passion, that sings, and that no additional force can be given to feets, after they are once well read, by drawling them through a tune-I can only say, sing them in the tune you can sing with the greatest case."

There is seasely any one thing that is so dispititing to a chuir, as to keep them constantly "drawl"ing such hymns. Not only so, but its effects upon the congregation are fully as bad.

"Ques. If a hymn is read, the greater part of which is cheerful, and the remainder plaintive, and a tune is selected for the cheerful, and just as all are prepared to commence, direction is given to mait all that is applicable to the tune selected, what then is to be dono! Ans. If those who read the words counst tell bejore they commence reading, what is to be sung, and what omitted. I refer you to them for an miswer."

I have noticed since I have been in this place, the perplexity, (not to say confusion) which has been caused by the clergymen. It is quite frequently the case that just as he is taking his seat, after reading the hymn, and the choir are all prepared to sing, he will omit a part of the hymn. I would respectfully engagest, to such elergymen as have not adopted the following practice, to do so. It is now the practice of a very large portion of the clorgymen in Massachusatts, and New York, and probably other States. This practice is, to note on the list of hymna fareished by the minister to the choir, what, if any, verses are wished to be omitted. This gives the chorjater an opportunity of selecting appropriate music, and also allows him to attend to the one of the Clergymen in town has adopted the above course, much to the convenience and satisfaction of the clinic. Why may not all the others!

A Puff for the Watering Places. -The Boston Post, enumerating the great advantages of these fashionable resorts, says they are a most convenient and useful contrivance in the social machinery of the country, providing as they do, during a portion of the year, a new and more comfortable standard of position for great numbers of ambitious people, of uneasy gentility, and concludes as follows:

" Here wealth has an importance altogether beyond the "home valuation," and readily bays an eclat with its gay trappings and showy equipage, which is vainly essayed to purchase in the place where the ignorance and vulgarity, perhaps the meanness and knavery of its proprietor, are as well known as the opulance which they have accompanied and begotten. Here decayed belles resume their youth and conquests, untroubled by the village gossip, or the awkward mementos of the family record. Here blooming widows and matronizing aunts, and managurering mammas lay violent siege on feps, snobs and nabobs - landless "patrons," brainless Cræsus, and apperyphal foreign counts. Vive la bagatelle-and success to the "watering places!"

As the gods get nothing but the smoke of their offerings, and the priests the meat, so authors get the fame and the booksellers the profit of their works; the noses of the one are tickledand the stomachs of the others filled.

WASHINGTON, Wednesday July 17. SENATE. Mr. Dickinson reported a gainst changing the standard of silveralloy in gold coin.

The bill granting lands for the Mobile and Georgia milioed was passed. Mr. Webster introduced a hill appropriating two thousand dollars for a monument o General Taylor, to be erected in the Congressional burial ground, which was passed. The bill to remit to hote of Dr Choper, a fine which was imposed under the sedition law, was passed.

The Minesota rail road bill was amend ed and ordered to a third reading.

Mr. Wobster obtained the floor, and said that it was his purpose to follow Mr. Butther last week, but the death of Gen. Toy for prevented him.

After an eloquent tribute to his memory and some remarks on the manner in which the country had sustained the shock, he proceeded to the discussion of the bill at

He said that an immediate and final set, tlement was urgently demanded, and that the continued agitation and delay increased the auxiety of the people.

He advocated, in his usual clear and for cible manual the immediate admission a California, and next, provision of governments for the territories

It was unwise, he eaid, and uneafa to adjourn Congress without settling these questions. He was decidedly in favor of passing the compromise bill in its present shape, but if it failed, he held himself bound to a favorable considerations of other bills. It was for Southern mombers to easy whether the bill should pass or not. House.-The House, immediately after the reading of the journal, went into committee at the whole on the New Mexico hesiness.

Mr. Bayly obtained the floor, and replied to Mr. McGaughey especially, Mr. McGaughey had said that New Mexico would inevitably come in as a state. Therefore it was unimportant what was done in the present ease.

He regarded Mr. McGanghey as speaking by authority. He argued that the constitution had been violated. Throughout the whole territorial mesement.

That the auminstration was driven to it by pladges given during the canyass. 130 made a denunciatory apoech.

Mr. Carter fullawed in an earnest speech in reply to Kanfnian's argument about the coundary, and is now speaking,

For Lt. Governor-Normon Williams of Woodstock.

For Treasurer -- George Hours, of Montpelier. A ticket that cant be heat. Resolutions were adopted, strongly approving President Taylor's policy, and recommending it to President Fillmore. 60- We learn from the Concordia Intelligencer that the remains of the gifted Pren-Ties were interred on the 2d inst., in the burying ground of the Sargent lamily near Natchez, where rest the remains of Governor Sargent and other ancestors of Mr. Prentiss. The Intelligencer enga:

The burist services were salemnized by the Rt. Rev. W. M. Green, Bishop of the Episcopal Church of Mississippi, in the presence of a large number of the best and most prominent of the citizen of the epuny, whose terrs watered the grave of him them all leved and whem all admired.

Long Spreames.-The Prosbytorian, in speaking of the impropriety of long speeches at the anniversaries, tells the following ancedote :

"At a roligious anniversary in England, a few years ago, a very excellent but co-centric elergyman was called on to about the meeting with prayer, and as the exercises meeting with prayer, and as the ex-had been protracted to an unusual i prayer, and as the exercises hour, and many of the audience had already left the house, from excessive fatigue, he was requested to offer a short prayer, which words fullowing "O Lord, forgive the tediousness of the speakers and the weatiness of the hearers. Amen."

A Coincidence .- As one of our enerable house-carpenters was at work on one of the old residences in this city, on Wednesday, a fellow workman stepped up and informed him that President Taylor was dead! The old gentieman faltered and seemed to be struck strangely by the news. In a few minutes, however, he applogised to his associate, saying to him he supposed he was surprised at his appearance .--"Rut," said he' " fifty one years ago, in this very house, not two feet from where I stood when you told me, I was informed of the death of President Washington, by my mother. That scene, with her countenance and manner, flashed upon me so vividly, when you spoke, that it was some minutes before I could command myself. Portland Advertiser.
